THE LA CAR AFICIONADO LUXURY EXPERIENCE FOR 4

This is a behind-the-scenes experience you cannot find anywhere else.

The ROBB REPORT compiles lists of the world's most influential connoisseurs in different arenas. LA contains three of the eight identified world Automotive Connoisseurs, and you're going to check out the scenes up close.

Four lucky people will have the opportunity to fly to Los Angeles on a private jet from Bend Municipal Airport, stay at the Luxe Hotel on Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills for two nights and visit the private automobile collections of connoisseurs Jay Leno, Bruce Meyer and Peter Mullin.

It is more likely than not that Jay could be in his "garage" tinkering; Bruce has committed to personally provide the tour of his collection; and Peter may be available depending upon his travel schedule.

The group is also invited to tour the Petersen Automotive Museum which re-opened December 2015 after a $125 million renovation. This is not your typical Auto Museum but an Art and Sculpture tour designed by artists like Alexander Calder, Frank Stella, Roy Lichtenstein, Andy Warhol, Jeff Koons and Jenny Holzer.

Depending upon the desires and make-up of the group, you might also choose to view other famous art museums in Los Angeles. The only Robb Report Connoisseurs in the Art World from Los Angeles, Eli and Edythe Broad recently opened the Broad Museum which houses their $2.6 billion collection. In addition, tours of LACMA, Getty Center, MOCA, Norton Simon Museum, and the Huntington Library, Art Collections and Botanical Gardens can be arranged.

Your tour guide can recommend the best dining opportunities available in the LA area. This is the ultimate insider's experience for the car aficionado!
