116. Tamarack Cellars Columbia Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 6L Bottle

2001 Tamarack Cellars Columbia Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 6 L Bottle

The vintage was exceptional with a fairly cool summer and then a glorious Indian summer in September, October and November. These conditions led to both a longer than usual hang time and very ripe fruit. The fruit was crushed gently and dropped by gravity into 1.5 ton or smaller bins, cold soaked a minimum of 48 hours, then inoculated with a variety of yeasts, hand-punched and pressed directly to barrel where the wine finishes both primary and secondary fermentation.

“Rich in texture, with ripe plum and currant flavors shaded with exotic spice from just the right touch of oak, all of it weaving together beautifully on the long, elegant finish.” -Wine Spectator

122. The Rare Scarecrow

2004 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon (96 WS, 94 RP)

Estimated value: $700 - $1100. The same bottle just sold at auction in April for $1150 through K and L Wine Merchants.

“... a gorgeous wine, with deep ruby/purple color, a wonderfully sweet nose of black currants and cherries intermixed with some cedar, lead pencil, and subtle wood. The wine’s purity, multi-dimensional texture, and effortless display of rich fruit and elegance make it a somewhat Lafite-Rothschild style of Napa, as hard to believe as that may seem. This is a beauty of finesse and power built for long-term aging. It should certainly evolve for at least two decades. Winemaker Celia Masyczek has again crafted some beautiful wines from this Rutherford vineyard for proprietor Bret Lopez, grandson of J.J. Cohn, who originally planted 80 acres of Cabernet in Rutherford and had a prominent role in the making of the movie “The Wizard of Oz,” to which, of course, the label pays homage. The vines for this wine are 62 years old, which makes them incredibly old by Napa standards, and the production was relatively small in 2004 (only 330 cases).” Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate.
