Aubert Chardonnay CIX Vertical

Mark Aubert's Sonoma Coast vineyard-designate Chardonnays have risen in popularity at a dizzying speed. His wines express the essence of singular terroirs with an effortless grace—production is limited and the wines are sold mainly by the allocation list, which currently has a long waiting list to join!

This vertical lot of three Aubert Chardonnay CIX wines represents a Chardonnay lovers delight. CIX reflects the second estate vineyard the Aubert family developed.

Robert Parker of the Wine Advocate rated the three wines in this auction lot, ranging from 2012 to 2014, 99 points, 97 points, and 99 points, respectively. Parker furthers, "Aubert is at the top of his game, and it is hard to believe any Chardonnay winemaker in the world is turning out a half-dozen Chardonnays at this qualitative level year in and year out..." Value: $600

Sipping on the Sonoma Coast 6-Pack

Known for its premium-production of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, the Sonoma Coast's cool-climate viticulture allows the area to grow grapes of exceptional quality—many of which go into the production of several of the highest scoring wines in California.

This 6-pack of wine from three, remarkable producers of Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir will please the palate of anyone looking to up their wine game. Included in this wine lot are two, back-to-back vintages of highly-lauded Peter Michael Winery Ma Danseuse Seaview Vineyard Pinot Noir—the 2012 which received a perfect, 100-point score from Robert Parker, of the Wine Advocate, and 97 points for the 2013 from James Suckling.

Two other bottles of Pinot Noir are from Peay Vineyards, who received the “CA Winery of the Year” award by the San Francisco Chronicle a few years back. The terroir-driven Pinot from Sojourn Cellars is sourced from the Sangiacomo Vineyard, a highly-sought after Sonoma Coast vineyard of high Chardonnay and Pinot Noir producing acclaim.

Age-worthy Australia

This trio of “E&E Black Pepper” Shiraz wines from Barossa Valley Estate in Australia is sourced from some of the best mature and independently dry grown vineyards in the northern Barossa sub-region of Moppa and Ebenezer.

With an average age of over 60 years, these vineyards yield fruit of great power and finesse.

Master of Wine, Andrew Caillard, relays, “With all the structural attributes for medium to long term cellaring, it has very strong currency in the secondary market.”

These wines also received 94 points by Australian wine critic, James Halliday.

Presqu'ile Party Pack

Located in the heart of Santa Barbara County's Santa Maria Valley, Presqu'ile is a small, family-run winery dedicated to crafting exceptional cool-climate Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and Sauvignon Blanc.

Presqu'ile wines capture the essence of their vineyards and have earned acclaim for their elegance and balance. Winemaker, Dieter Cronje, employs a gentle approach that uses native yeasts, whole clusters, and modest new oak, while eschewing winemaking "enhancements."

This mix of six Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, and Rosé wines represent wines that are distinctly reflective of Santa Barbara wine county. Looking to step outside of the Pacific NW for some wine? Look no further!

Iconic French

Translated as the “new papal home”, the town’s namesake, Chateauneuf-du-Pape, refers to the period of time in the 1300’s when the pope resided in Avignon instead of Rome.

As a famous wine region, the Chateauneuf-du-Pape appellation d’origine contrôlée (AOC) in the southern Rhone Valley of France is also home to some of the world’s most widely recognized “GSM” wines; Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvedre reign king in this region and many of the wines go for hundreds of dollars upon release.

Produced by five generations of the Famile Perrin, this 2012 Chateau de Beaucastel Chateauneuf-du-Pape received 96 points by the Wine Advocate and is described as having, “fabulous mid-palate concentration, building tannin and massive structure. Given all of the fruit and texture here, it will no doubt drink well in its youth, but should still be alive and kicking after two decades as well.”

Magnum of 94-Point Spring Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon

Heralded as a “brilliant wine” and “almost a Napa version of a classy Saint-Julien from Bordeaux” by wine critic, Robert Parker, this magnum of Juslyn Spring Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon can be opened now, or over the next 20-25 years.

Just a few magnums of this wine were produced. Wine all grapes hailing from their estate vineyard in the Spring Mountain District of Napa, this awesome wine represents “vineyard-to-bottle” in a powerful way. Salut!

- Juslyn Spring Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon 2013 Magnum

Breadth and Depth of Sonoma Wine

This trio of Magnum wines from throughout the Sonoma area offer three, totally distinct wines made by family owned and operated wineries.

The Ramey Ritchey Wine Cellars Chardonnay was ranked #38 in Wine Spectator's Top 100 wines of 2016, receiving 94 points by the magazine. Owner, David Ramey, was also lauded as "one of California's best and most respected winemakers" by Decanter.

Passalacqua is a 5th generation wine grape growing family—Francesco Passalacqua emigrated from Genoa in 1865 and immediately planted grapes in Healdsburg! These days, Passalacqua crafts small lot, hand-crafted wines and this Zinfandel offers up the "spices" of fruit from many different vineyards in Dry Creek Valley in order to create the essence of Zinfandel from this area.

Mietz Cellars is owned and operated by a husband and wife duo and their daughter. Producing just small quantities every year, with a focus on quality and a sense of place, the magnum of Cabernet Franc will warm up any party, any time of the year!
